Workshops for Educators

K-3 Launching and Maintaining Writer's Workshop

June 14th, 2018

Presenters: Ashley Luth & Betsy Woeste

Make writing time your favorite part of the day (and your students')! We will review Ohio Writing Standards and discuss how a comprehensive literacy framework supports writing across grade levels. We will discuss the integral pieces of Writer's Workshop including schedule, supplies, routines, mentor texts, mini-lessons, conferring, sharing, and units of study.

Ga-Ga for Google

June 18th, 2018

Presenter: Betsy Crites

Is your school using Google? Tired of being the only teacher not proficient in Google Docs, Google Classroom, Google Extensions. If so, this one day workshop will give you the knowledge and confidence you need to set up your own Google Classroom for next fall. You will learn how to create assignments, make announcements and forms, and post them for your students. This is a great way to begin "flipping" your classroom. Please bring materials so you can take full advantage of getting ready for the new year. You will need a Google Account through your home school.

4-6 Getting Kids to LOVE Writing

June 15th, 2018

Presenters: Ashley Luth & Betsy Woeste

Everyone can be a writer! We will take Writer's Workshop to the next level with this one day workshop. How do we develop clear, replicable methods of instruction for teaching writing AND build momentum and motivation in our students? How do we meet the wide range of needs of students? We will discuss the Writer's Workshop structure, planning, routines and procedures, conferring and assessment, and how all of this aligns within a balanced literacy approach.

I hate reading and writing about this boring stuff!

June 19th, 2018

Presenter: Mindy Fulks

Gone are the days that content teachers could successfully assign reading and writing and expect it to be a hot topic in class the next day. All teachers are teachers of reading, writing, speaking, listening and viewing. If you would like to improve the literacy piece in your content area, I'll be sharing engaging, fun strategies you can use next year that are research based, useful and appropriate to help engage those squirrely kids in grades 3-12.
